THE GOWINGS WINE PHILOSOPHY

Wine at Gowings should feel generous, curious and just a little bit indulgent.

Italy sits at the heart of the list. From the hills of Piedmont to Tuscany, Sicily and beyond, we celebrate the producers, varieties and regions that make Italian wine so compelling. Nebbiolo and Sangiovese have a particularly important place at our table, alongside the lesser-known grapes and bottles that reward a little curiosity.

We look home to Australia for wines with provenance and personality, championing benchmark regions, established names and a new generation of producers. Alongside them sit the great cellars of France and the wider wine world, from Champagne and Burgundy to the Loire, Germany, Spain and beyond.

Our cellar deliberately reaches beyond the current vintage, with mature bottles, museum releases and verticals that allow guests to experience what happens when great vineyards and great winemaking are given time to speak.

Drink Champagne on a Tuesday. Order Barolo with your steak. Try the grape you've never heard of. Let the sommelier choose. Have something chilled that probably wasn't served chilled twenty years ago. Or order the bottle you already know you love.

There are classics for the traditionalists, discoveries for the curious, and a few bottles tucked away for those who know exactly what they're looking for.

No rules. No lectures. No wine snobbery.
Just good bottles, generous hospitality and the belief that the best wine on the list is the one that makes the table better.

ITALIAN SOUL.
AUSTRALIAN CONFIDENCE.
OLD-WORLD PEDIGREE.
GOWINGS ATTITUDE.
